

IN SERVICE TO PEOPLE WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MODERN SUPPORT SERVICES HONORED WITH SPOTLIGHT AWARD FOR WORK ON BEHALF OF PEOPLE WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

GARDEN GROVE, Calif., March 19 – Modern Support Services, headquartered in Glendale with offices in Orange, was honored by the Regional Center of Orange County (RCOC) with a “Spotlight Award” at a dinner-dance on Fri., March 16 at the Crowne Plaza Anaheim Resort. The purpose of the awards program and event, which was attended by more than 500 people, is to honor those in Orange County who have advanced the quality of life for people with developmental disabilities.

company is known for helping the people it serves to become more independent and for helping people that other vendors have difficulty serving.

ABOUT RCOC: Regional Center of Orange County is the private, nonprofit organization contracted by the State of California to coordinate life-long services and supports to the nearly 17,000 Orange County residents with developmental disabilities and their families. Developmental disabilities include intellectual disabilities, autism, epilepsy and cerebral palsy.
